STRUMBLY SINGLE

They comest not in scher guine,
In molice cloak or reseast clad—
Thiss are not melancholy asies,
Son busies flowers, pais and red;
But like an Emperor Ulumphing,
With gargeous robes of Tyrian dyes,
Full flush of feagrant blossoming,
And glowing purple canopies,
How call ye this the season's fall.
That seems the organi of the year?
Richer and highler for than all
The pemp that apring and semmer wear,
Red falts the western light of day
Ou rack, and stream, and winding shore;
Son woody banks and granite gray
With amber clouds are cur ained o er;
The wide, clear waters sheeping lie
Beneath the evening's wings of guid,
And on their glacey breast the sky,
And banks their nimpled hees unfold,
Far in the tangled woods 'he ground
Is arreas with fallen lesses, that lie
Like crimson campy.
The sleping sam, with arrows bright,
Pierces the forest's waving maze.
The universe seems wrapt in light,
A floating robe of rosy hare.
Oh, Autumn thou art here a kine—
And tound thy threase the senting hours
A theoremand fragrant tributes thing.

matic poison of Firem Asso Agus from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premoning year symptoms. It is not only the hear remedy ever we discovered for this class of complaints, but also the chaspest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where Figure as Agus provides price will place it within the reach of all—the peop as well as the rich. A great supersority of this remely over any other over discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Internitionals, that it contains as Quintine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinten or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the discuss.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the relaxmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralpia, Rheumatism, Gong Readache, Blindmoss, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spicee, Hysteries, Palu in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Deraugement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittant type, or become periodical. This "Curae" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants, and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous are the cases of its curse, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and ever desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virues are known, the public no longer heisate what satisfacts of employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organithat are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
